Program Notes for April: Vincenzo Sagari, Vias Imports

Vincenzo Sagari is the Regional Sales Manager for New Jersey at Vias Imports, Ltd. He was born and raised in Florence, Italy and spent most of his life there. His family still resides in Florence and he is lucky enough to be able to return home throughout the year on both personal and business ventures.

For the last 25 years, Vincenzo has worked in the wine industry representing numerous Italian wine producers within the United States. While his knowledge and expertise in the industry encompasses the vast world of wines, his primary focus and passion always has been for the numerous varieties characteristic of the various regions in Italy.

Established in 1983 as an import company specializing in small, high quality wineries, Vias Imports Ltd. has grown in most recent years to have broad-based distribution operations that place it among the most renowned Italian wine importers in the US market, boasting one of the most outstanding portfolios in the industry.

Its mission is to educate wine lovers about the wide range of grape varieties from Italy, inviting palates to appreciate the diversity of Italian wine through the enticing experience of food and wine pairing, and guiding them in the understanding of a heritage which is particular to the Italian peninsula.

Vias Imports, Ltd., has its headquarters in New York City. It distributes its wines directly in the States of New York and New Jersey, and nationally through a network of 61 distributors divided into seven regions: Northwest, West, Southwest, Midwest, Southeast, Mid-Atlantic, Northeast and Florida-Caribbean.
